

Help Support the VillageReach Last Milers on the Mountain to Sound 100 Mile Relay Race!

- What: The annual Mountain to Sound Relay Race will see the best of the region's cyclists, paddlers and runners compete in a thrilling all-day race from the Cascades to the Sound.
- When/where: Snoqualmie Pass to Golden Gardens Park in Seattle.
June 27th, 2010
- Your Support: The six-member Last Milers team hopes to raise $6,000 to help support our work. Please join us is working to improve the lives of those less privileged.
- How: Please visit the VillageReach website at www.villagereach.org and click on the Donate tab at the top of the page.
- Who: The VillageReach Last Milers. VillageReach, based in Fremont, works in sub-Saharan Africa and Asia to improve access to vaccines, medicines and other medical commodities. Launched in 2001, VillageReach is a dedicated team of 25 public health, information technology and business professionals. The independent charity evaluator, GiveWell, gives VillageReach its #1 recommendation from more than 400 non-profits evaluated, in terms of benefit (lives saved), cost efficiency and transparency. See www.givewell.net.
- The need is great: as many as 2.5 million children dies each year from preventable diseases. We work with governments in the developing world to improve their health systems. Our focus is on the last mile, the last layer of distribution to reach hundreds of millions of people living in remote, rural communities, where even the most basic services are hard to access.